

Learning English Through Movies

Reading Worksheet — Level C | tahricteaches.com

Many people love watching movies. Did you know that movies can help you learn English? A movie is a story shown on a screen with pictures and sound. When you watch movies in English, you hear real words that people use every day. It is a fun and easy way to study.

One good way to learn is to use subtitles. Subtitles are words at the bottom of the screen. They show what people say in the movie. You can read the words and listen at the same time. This helps you understand new words and sentences quickly.

Pay attention to each actor in the movie. An actor is a person who speaks and moves in a story. Listen carefully to how they say words. Actors use many different kinds of English. Some speak fast, and some speak slowly. Try to copy the way they speak.

Every scene in a movie is a short part of the story. When you see a scene with new words, watch it again. Watching the same scene two or three times helps you remember. Write down the new words in your notebook and look them up in a dictionary later.

Think about your favorite character in the movie. A character is a person in the story. Talk about that character with your friends in English. Ask questions like "What does this character do?" or "Why does the character feel sad?" Movies make English learning exciting and easy.
